Talk/Film Screening 'The Pachamama Five' Tues 7th 7pm

Screening of 'The Pachamama Five' - the story of a libertarian guerilla cell operating in central Peru who blew up a bus-stop in Cuzco in 1964, injuring nobody, and were in hiding for 20 years, plus talk (all in Spanish) from a man claiming to be a Mexican anarchist.

ANTI-ELITIST READING GROUP

This month we will be critiquing Hakim Bey's 'devastating' analysis of Zerzan's seminal reposte to Negri's tract on John Jordan's paper about Buffy The Vampire Slayer. Unless you've read the full works of Kropotkin, Gramsci and Proudhon in their original languages, and know series three of Angel, don't even bother trying to break into our clique.

SURVIVAL SKILLS TRAINING WEEKEND

Capitalism and everything around us is about to be torn to pieces violently by climate change, resource wars, and financial meltdown (well here's hoping anyway).

We are holding a training weekend with the specific aim of addressing - and surviving - the aftermath.

All the basics will be covered: food production, shelter, heat, unarmed combat, medicine. Also being discussed are anarchist models of a restructured society, and themes raised in the cult 70s post-apocalyptic science fiction TV series 'Survivors'.

Register now at www.the-collapse-will-not-be-televised.org.uk

ASBO LITERACY PROJECT

A free weekly workshop welcome to all ASBO Kids and Chavs alike to help them improve their literacy skills - and learn a bit about anarchism while they're here innit.

Free every Friday 11am - 3pm
For more see www.alp.org.uk

RAVE CASUALTY SUPPORT GROUP

Did you do too many E's in the 90s, and the smiley vibes have long since worn off?

We meet every Tuesday at 2am at a different service station around the M25 to talk about legal herbal Serotonin replacements, diy dentistry, and try to remember just what the hell happened at Castlemorton.

* Post-millennial K burnout cases and Road Protest camp wash-ups also welcome *

ANARCHIST DOLEYS FORUM 2007

With a talk from the Unemployable Workers Union about what it is to be unemployable in the age of precarity, and how to reconcile the contradictions of being on benefits as an out-and-out smash-the-state anarchist.

Sat 3rd Feb, starts 11am, free entry call 0430322333

FREE TEA & BISCUITS!

Come down on the first Tuesday of every month at 8am to help the cleaning crew.
